Approved For Refease 2003/05/05 : CIA-RDP80R01731R003600060058-8

CIG DIRECTIVE NO.

MATIONAL INTELLIGENCE REQUIREMENTS

Memorandum from the Director of Central Intelligence

- 1. In order to fulfill the National Intelligence Mission given to this Authority by directives of the President and M.T.A., it is considered necessary to announce and marketon a current statement of National Intelligence Requirements which serve as the broad basis for agency directives for the collection, research and evaluation of intelligence.
- 2. National Intelligence Requirements are in effect a command statement by the N.I.A of the current requirements for that strategic intelligence which is essential to the National Security, and is in concurrence with U. S. Foreign Policy. They are based upon an analysis of the continuing evaluated intelligence provided by research and study of the international situation.
- 3. National Intelligence Requirements are prepared in the following
 - a. Suggestions for contents are prepared by the DCI with the assistance and advice of the IAB. In these suggestions, both the DCI end the membership of the IAB are guided by their own current intelligence of the international situation and by their knowledge of the operational plans and policies of the Stabe.

 War, and Newy Department.

- b. Proposed contents of the NIR are prepared in three parts as follows:
 - (1) Part I a brief statement of such current National Policy as effects intelligence operations and activity.
 - (2) Part II The Mational Intelligence Requirements which are regarded as most durrently essential to the Mational Security.
 - (3) Part III Collection Directive for NIR. This part lists specific information desired, either as individual items of intelligence, analytic reports, or intelligence research activities to be instituted.
 - c. Proposed MIE are submitted to the MIA by the DCI, after receiving assistance and advice of IAB and are published as an MIA Directive entitled MIR No. The MIR will be issued for a three months period at the termination of which it will be resubmitted to the MIA for review. It will be subject to review and minor revision by the DCI at least once a month or open request of any member of the IAB. Major revisions of these times may be submitted by the DCI at his discretion to the MIA.
 - d. Part III of the MIR form the broad collection directive to intelligence agencies in order to produce the essential Material Intelligence.
- 4. a. Until such time as the MIR can be properly studied and produced on a global gasis, it is proposed to publish a special MIR for one particular area, i.e.: the China area. This special MIR will serve as a mean of perfecting the integrated intelligence methods and procedures which can be later used in preparation and sublication of MIR.

Approved For Release 2003/05/05: CIA-RDP80R01731R003600060058-8

Approved For Release 2003/05/05: CIA-RDP80R01731R003600060058-8

b. For the above purposes, attached hereto as Appendixi is Special NIR —— China Area which becomes effective on date shown and will be used by CIG and all departmental intelligence agencies entitled to redeive TOP Secret documents as the overall directive for all intelligence activities. Nothing in this directive is intended to prevent the use and preparation of De artmental directives for intelligence peculiar to their own intelligence fields of primary interest so long as the NIR can likewise be properly not.

Next 1 Page(s) In Document Exempt